LOWMAN AUTOMOBILE TAX BILL EXPLAINED BY SENATOR WALTON

Exaggeration and Misrepresentation Seem to Have Been at Bottom of Much of the Opposition—Increase Ranges From $2.73 to $5.76 on Passenger Cars and is Not Doubled on Light Trucks.

In reply to a letter from the editor of The Freeman asking for a statement regarding the Lowman automobile tax bill, Senator Walton writes as follows:

Albany, March 23, 1921.

Editor of The Freeman: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of recent date, relative to Senate Bill No. 727, commonly known as the Lowman bill, in relation to fees for registration of motor vehicles. I appreciate very much your writing me in regard to this matter, and believe now and have always believed that my constituents have a right to know the attitude of their representatives upon any pending legislation and the reasons for the same.

In relation to the above bill, I call your attention to the fact that the governor in his message to the legislature, dated January 5th, 1921, recommended that the motor vehicle tax be increased to provide all the revenue needed for highway maintenance. The motor traffic makes such maintenance necessary and should bear the expense of it. The legislature just adopted a system of highways as shown by a map known as the Hewitt map, which provides for a total mileage of eleven thousand miles.

Approximately eight thousand five hundred miles of this road is now constructed or under the process of construction. I understand that there is to be built this year five hundred miles of road, according to the plans of the state commissioner of highways.

The tax on motor vehicles in 1920 was gross about $5,000,000. It costs about $500,000 to maintain the bureau of collection and inspection. One-fourth of this money or about $1,250,000 was turned over to the localities, that is, the various towns in the counties for the benefit of town roads, which left an available balance for the state of $3,750,000, all of which was directly applied to highway maintenance.

It is estimated that it costs one thousand dollars a mile to maintain state roads after they are built, so that for 1922, the state will have to furnish $9,000,000 for maintenance and the increases provided for by the Lowman bill are expected to produce an additional $3,000,000, making the total tax going to the state for 1922 of $9,000,000.

Much has been said about the provisions of this bill, and much misinformation has been given out. The following schedule shows the percentage of increase upon both passenger cars and automobile trucks.

Automobiles.

(Passenger Cars.)
Proposed Fee—40c per H. P.
Minimum fee 6 cylinder $10.00.
Minimum 4 cylinder $5.00. 10 cents per $100 (over 5 years old).
1920 Fee—25c per H. P. 40c per $100 old price; 20c per $100 (2 to 5 years old).

Automobile registration is free to the state, county, village and town cars.

How the new bill will affect registration on these cars:

Name	Horse Power	Proposed Increase (1920)
Hudson	29.4	$4.41
Overland	18.2	2.73
Cadillac	31.25	4.69
Scripps-Booth	18.93	2.81
Franklin	25.35	3.80
Ford	22.5	3.38
Maxwell	21.33	3.15
Studebaker	29.4	4.41
Buick	27.24	4.10
Mayson	23.75	3.56
Packard	27.24	4.10
Pierce-Arrow	35.4	5.76

Motor Trucks.

Weight & Capacity	1920	Proposed Fee
2 Ton	$10.00	$15.00
3 Ton	15.00	22.50
4 Ton	20.00	30.00
5 Ton	25.00	37.50
6 Ton	30.00	45.00
7 Ton	35.00	52.50
8 Ton	40.00	60.00
9 Ton	45.00	67.50
10 Ton	50.00	75.00
11 Ton	55.00	82.50
12 Ton	60.00	90.00
13 Ton	65.00	97.50
14 Ton	70.00	105.00

Over 11 tons ($70.00)—$110.00.
Plus $20.00 for each ton over 11 (instead of $10.00) as at present.

You can readily see from an examination of this schedule the actual amount of increase on motor vehicles. As you will note, there is no increase on the list price of cars, but only on the horse power; that at the present time there is a fee of twenty-five cents per horse power and the proposed fee increases this amount to forty cents per horse power.

There is a greater increase on trucks, but the burden they place upon the highways is proportionately much heavier than that borne by the passenger car.

It must be borne in mind that the automobile is exempt from the personal property tax. Every one who owns a car and pays the tax and further demands that the state should be kept in good condition. This cannot be done without raising taxes to provide for the maintenance.

PROBING GIGANTIC CONFIDENCE GAME

Activities of Band Netted More Than $1,000,000—Easiest To Swindle Is Millionaire Who Inherited Money, Says One of Gang.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Chicago, March 24.—Indictment of several persons, one of them said to be a well known politician, is to be sought, the state's attorney's office announced today as the result of an alleged confession by Frederick K. Buckminster, arrested recently in Florida after a two years search.

Buckminster is said to have confessed membership in a band of confidence men whose activities netted more than $1,000,000. Among the victims was Charles Warden, banker of Fort Wayne, Ind., who dropped $15,000 and A. A. Childs, a wealthy resident of Kokomo, who is declared to have lost heavily.

Joseph "Yellow Kid" Weil and James Held, other members of the band, already are serving terms in Joliet prison. Buckminster was under sentence of three years when he forfeited bonds of $115,000 and fled. He was arrested in Florida several days ago.

"The easiest man to swindle in the world," Buckminster told newspaper men, "is the millionaire who inherited his money. He is a natural born sucker."

PACKERS' TROUBLE HALTED TILL FALL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 24.—The net results of the peace conferences between Secretary of Labor Davis and representatives of the five big packers and their employees is an armistice until September 15.

According to the agreement signed by both sides the agreement of December 25, 1917, and extension thereof and all decisions thereunder, shall remain in effect until September 15, 1921, at which time the agreement and all awards thereunder and supplements and renewals thereof and understandings connected therewith shall absolutely terminate.

This is taken to mean that when September 15 rolls around the trouble will be renewed, although the packers, through their representatives who handled the negotiations with Secretary Davis announced today that the termination of the war time agreement will enable the packers to complete plans already announced to adjust between themselves and employees all matters of mutual interest.

WEEKS A SUICIDE.

Used Shotgun When Revolver Didn't Kill Him.

DeWitt Weeks, a farmer living near Route's Mills at South Cairo, Greene county, committed suicide Tuesday evening, using both a revolver and shotgun for the purpose. He had been melancholy for some time. Tuesday evening his wife, after being out of the house a few minutes, came back and found him lying on the bed after having shot himself twice in the left breast with a revolver. She rushed out to get his brother, Arthur Weeks, and when he returned her husband had managed to get hold of his shotgun, placed the muzzle against his face and pulled the trigger, killing himself instantly and badly mutilating his head.

money, direct tax on real estate, increase rate of income tax, and increase rate motor vehicle tax. Real estate has borne this burden, and is now bearing all that it can stand. The tax-payers have built and provided the roads for the owners of automobiles and the automobile trucks, and it only seems just and equitable to see that those who use the road should pay for their maintenance, and a careful examination of the automobile license fee today will show you that it is very small indeed, compared to the burden borne by other tax-payers.

PART TIME SCHOOL NOT SO COSTLY

Cost Taxpayers Less Than $2000 This Year And Can Be Cared For Next Year In Existing School Buildings.

At the meeting of the board of education Wednesday evening reports from the advisory board and Superintendent Michael on the continuation school showed that the cost to the taxpayers of the city has not been nearly so great as was at first estimated, owing to the fact that the federal and state governments contributed the greater share of the salaries paid to the two teachers who devoted a part of their time to this continuation school.

The advisory board report shows that while the entire time of two teachers will be required the coming year, owing to increased number of pupils, no new buildings will be needed and the federal and state governments will again pay more than half of this cost. The reports in full follows:

Advisory Board Report.

At a meeting of the advisory board on part time school, on Friday evening, March 18, Messrs. Fessenden, Gorman and Hoffman being present, the following resolution was adopted after a prolonged discussion of the probable needs on the part time school for the school year, beginning August 1, 1920:

Resolved, that the advisory board recommend to the board of education that to make proper provision for the expected pupils in part time school for the school year beginning August 1, 1921, and ending July 31, 1922, the following arrangements be made:

First, that the quarters for the boys remain in the high school machine shop.

Second, that vacant rooms in one of the elementary schools be used for the girls.

Third, that the necessary home-making equipment be provided.

Fourth, that the best information obtainable at present warrants us in the belief that the entire time of two teachers will be necessary to take care of the number of pupils expected.

Fifth, that the method of using the present school facilities is the most economical plan for complying with the provisions of the state law in regard to continuation or part time school and that we believe that this plan should be adhered to until experience demonstrates that other arrangements must be provided.

Supt. Michael's Report.

To the Honorable, the Board of Education.
Gentlemen:—I respectfully submit the following report on part time evening schools.

The part time school in this city was organized for the first time last October. The education law provides "that part time schools shall be established in cities and school districts having a population of five thousand or more inhabitants; that such schools shall be under the control and management of the board of education and shall be a part of the public school system. Such part time schools shall be maintained each year during the full period of time which the public schools of the city or district are in session. The courses of study shall include: instruction in American history, citizenship, industrial history, economics, the essential features of the laws relating to industries and other subjects as will include such vocational intelligence of the pupils."

The law also provides "that minors between the ages of fourteen years and eighteen years shall attend the part time school." Under the law boards of education were required to organize classes in part time school at the beginning of the current school year and annually thereafter in September the board of education is to open and maintain additional schools so that by the opening of the public schools in September, 1925, a sufficient number of such schools shall have been established to afford the required instruction of those minors who are required to attend such schools.

This last provision made it possible for the board of education of this city to begin the part time school enterprise with only those minors who are over fourteen and not yet fifteen years of age. Next year the fifteen year old minors will be included, the following year the sixteen year olds and the year after that the seventeen year olds by which time it is estimated that there will be at least five hundred minors in the city of Kingston who will be compelled to attend part time school at least four hours per week.

Under the state law and the Smith-Hughes act of congress, two-thirds of the salary of the first teacher or director of part time school is paid by the state and federal government, the other third by the city. Under the same laws one-half the salaries of the other teachers in part time school are paid by the government and the other half by the city.

Teachers' salaries for part time school this year amount to a total of $1,600, of which the state pays $1,016.66, the city's share being $583.34. A very liberal estimate for all other expenses for part time school this year would be less than $200.

Since the opening of the evening school in Kingston, there have been registered 104 pupils. There are now in attendance about 50 pupils with an average attendance of 34. Twenty-three adult former farm people are registered in the citizenship class, six of whom are studying in preparation for their citizenship papers. The attendance in this division has been remarkably good. Twenty-three young women registered for cooking lessons, which are

CARDINAL GIBBONS DEAD IN BALTIMORE

Aged Church Dignitary, One of the Foremost Prelates in the World, Died From General Breakdown Beginning With a Severe Cold Which Developed While Preaching Last December.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and one of the leading Roman Catholic prelates in the whole world, died at the archiepiscopal residence here at 11:33 this forenoon in the eighty-seventh year of his age.

The venerable prelate's death had been expected since late yesterday afternoon when he lapsed into a state of coma from which he did not rally up to the time of his death.

Death of the Cardinal was due to a general breakdown, which had been superinduced by a heavy cold, and which first became pronounced while the prelate was delivering a sermon at Havre de Grace, Md., on December 12 last. Following the attack Cardinal Gibbons went to the home of Thomas Shriver, a life long friend at Union Mills, Md., for a rest and an attempt at recuperation.

His condition, despite the best of medical and personal attention, grew worse and at the beginning of the new year the life of the Cardinal was despaired of by his close assistants and his legion of friends.

He was brought back to his old home in Baltimore, early in January and about two weeks later showed signs of improvement. So much did the Cardinal show signs of returning strength that he was allowed to take almost daily automobile drives.

These outings continued up until last Sunday.

The Cardinal was again stricken on Sunday and he immediately was returned to his bed.

At that time his heart action became alarmingly weak and his temperature fell to a serious degree. Since that time his personal physician, Dr. Charles O'Donovan, has been in almost constant attendance but it was felt that the Cardinal could not again manifest the remarkable recuperative powers which he showed several months ago.

Because of the Cardinal's extreme frailty and his advanced age, all preparations were made for the end. Monsignor John Bonzano, apostolic delegate at Washington, came to Baltimore and spent the larger part of Tuesday at the Cardinal's home; Bishop Owen B. Corrigan, the vicar-general of the archdiocese, had spent a great part of his time at his eminence's bedside for several days. The public was informed of the change in the condition of the most distinguished clergyman of the Catholic Church in the United States late on Tuesday.

The first evidence of the failure of Cardinal Gibbons' strength was noted late last year while he was at Havre de Grace. At that time he was seized with a momentary faintness and seemed about to fall while delivering a sermon.

On December 31 Bishop Corrigan issued a statement to all pastors asking them to request their people to pray for the Cardinal's recovery or his happy death. The Cardinal was announced for the second time, the first time having been two weeks earlier. It was thought by those most intimately associated with him that he would never be able to leave the Shriver home. In this, however, he manifested the same tenaciousness and resolution which he had shown all his life, and he surprised his friends not only by recovering sufficient strength to make the trip by motor to his residence in Baltimore on January 3, but, once there, to recover strength. The Cardinal subsequently made short motor trips in the city and its environs and moved about his residence in a wheel chair. He never recovered sufficient strength, however, to again take into his own hands the administration of his duties as the executive head of the archdiocese of Baltimore and his many other duties in connection with the church. For three months the members of his household guarded him against any experience which might exhaust his frail strength. Only his own resolution made it possible for him to get about again as he did after his return from the Shriver home.

ULSTER MAY GET THE NEW JUDGE

There seems to be every prospect of the creation of an additional federal judicial district embracing the counties of Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Columbia, Rockland, Orange, Ulster, Greene, Sullivan and Delaware. Westchester county desires to secure both the court house and the new judge. To this there is a strong opposition upon the part of the lawyers of the other counties who regard White Plains as an inconvenient place to reach, and who prefer to go to New York rather than to go there. The result of the opposition is the suggestion of a compromise by which the new court house shall go to Orange, and the new judge to Ulster county. Orange county will have an excellent site for a new court house on the demolition of the present court house and jail, in Newburgh, because of the abolition of the system of double shires in that county, and the removal of the place of holding courts to Goshen. It is said that if the new judge is selected from Ulster, Judge Clearwater, who is the representative of the Third Judicial District on the New York State Bar Association's Committee relative to the subject, doubtless will be an important factor in his selection, the judge's relations with Secretary of State Hughes and Attorney General Daugherty long having been intimate.

Martial Law in Hamburg After Communist Uprising in Which Many Are Killed or Wounded.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, March 24.—Fifty persons are reported to have been killed in Communist disorders in Hamburg, Germany, according to a Central News despatch from Berlin today. The entire police force of 20,000 members which had been mobilized in the Hohenstedt dockyard district was engaged in battle and defeated by the Communists.

Berlin, March 24.—Martial law has been proclaimed at Hamburg as a result of the Communist rising and Senator Henz has been appointed dictator, said a despatch from that city today.

Nearly a score of persons were reported to have been killed in clashes with the Communists who were occupying shipping yards and attacking government buildings at Hamburg. Four men were killed and twelve wounded when workmen attempted to disarm the police at Vulcan ship yards.

A later message from New Paltz stated that, running true to form, "Rip" visited the village hotels and took dinner at the Tammy House, where he insisted on taking his dog with him in the dining room and giving it a seat at the table. The dog's table manners were very bad and "Rip's" not much better.

TROUBLE AGAIN AT "LONG HOUSE"

Demolishing of Landmark on Broadway. Halted When Bregman Failed to Agree With Smith's Methods of Tearing It Down—Jazz Wall Paper And Olden Days.

The work of demolishing the "Long House" at Broadway and West Pierpont street was halted Saturday when Louis Bregman failed to approve the methods used by William C. Smith of Hudson street in taking down the old structure. The land is owned by St. Peter's parish, and the building itself was sold to Mr. Bregman recently with the understanding that he would remove it. Mr. Bregman bought it for the lumber and building material contained in it.

Mr. Bregman then engaged William C. Smith of Hudson street, who is said, agreed to demolish the building for the sum of $150. The first week Smith was engaged on the job he received $25, and the second week $50, making half of the contract price that he had received. Out of the contract price Smith also paid a helper, as one man could not do the work alone.

Trouble Over Demolishing.

The building was about three-quarters demolished on Saturday when Mr. Bregman called to see how the work was progressing. The agreement was that Smith was to pile the lumber from the building on the grounds and Bregman would later remove it. It is said that Bregman claimed that Smith was destroying and damaging too much of the lumber and he "fired" Smith.

Mr. Smith called at police headquarters and was informed that the trouble between him and Bregman was a civil one, and his remedy, if he felt aggrieved, was in the city court. It is understood that Smith, left seeking a lawyer, and unless an amicable agreement is reached the probabilities are that there will be a civil action started by Smith to recover the balance of the contract price, $75.

The work of demolishing the "Long House" has brought to the minds of old residents memories of the olden days when the occupants of the "Long House" often figured in police court on various charges ranging from public intoxication to fighting. All of the families who occupied the building at various intervals, however, did not figure in police court.

Easier To Move Than Pay Rent.

In the old days some of the families who occupied the building found it much easier to move than pay rent, and many are the tales told of how the rent was dodged by some of the families.

In those days there was a constant shifting about of households from month to month. When the collector of rents would call, he would visit the various apartments, and more often than not would be greeted by a strange face when he knocked at the door.

"How long have you lived here?" he would ask.

"Oh, I just moved in recently," would be the reply.

"Have you the rent ready?" was the next question asked.

"None" would be the ready response.

"Then you will have to get out today," was the stern answer.

"All right," would reply the tenant, and after the collector had left the building the tenant who was dispossessed would gather together his belongings, never of great value, and go either up to the floor above or the floor below and move into any apartment that happened to be found vacant at the time.

Where Jazz Wall Paper First Appeared.

The term jazz as applied to music is one of but recent origin but the original jazz wall paper first made its appearance years ago on the walls of some of the rooms of the "Long House."

Some of the tenants to lighten and brighten up some of the dismal apartments let their imagination and taste in colors run wild in selecting the wall covering of the rooms they occupied. They would attempt every wall paper sale and select all of the odds and ends of stock they could find, and the brighter and more glaring the colors the better it was liked. As a result there would be four or five or more different patterns and colors and designs of wall paper on one room alone.

Gave One A Wobbly Feeling.

To say the least the result was most startling and one visiting the apartments for the first time would gaze around somewhat dazed. Dancers say that real jazz music stirs the blood and makes one want to dance whether they want to or not, but the effect of the jazz wall paper on the visitor was such as to give one a wobbly feeling that it took time to overcome.

"Sure it cheers me up," would explain a tenant whose rooms were covered with the jazz designs, "and the land knows a little cheering up never comes amiss these days."

For while those of this generation are "kicking" about the high cost of living and the high rents they should overlook the fact that the same problems confronted the ones of past generations. It was just another case where age old problems prove ever new.

Printed words can not convey the impression one received when first he caught a startled glimpse of some of the wall paper on some of the rooms. For instance there would be red, blue, yellow and green borders running around the top of the walls. Then in alternate strips there would be the odds and ends, the bargains in wall paper that the tenant had picked up at a sale. Green paper with fancy flowered design would alternate on the side walls with fiery red paper with ornamental figures. And the ceilings! The ceilings would have enough different designs of paper to furnish a twenty room house with every room a different color and design.

Only A Few Drinks Needed.

And along with the jazz wall paper only a few drinks of the stuff that was easily secured before the Volstead act and the eighteenth amendment to the constitution went into effect, was needed to give one an old fashioned jag, and many were the "looting, fighting drunks" who would take the recorder the next day.

What would happen to the person with an artistic mind who first viewed the walls of some of the rooms had best be left to the imagination.

Soon A Memory Of The Past.

"Ye olden days" at the "Long House" will soon be but a memory of the past with the older residents, for with the demolishing difficulties adjusted the building will shortly vanish from view. It is practically all down at the present time.

AT THE THEATRES.

Newspaper Story at Opera House—Wm. S. Hart at Keeney's.

The fighting front of France was "the cradle of courage" in which many a brave American soldier discovered his own moral value. At least "Square" Kelly, a San Francisco safe-cracker, did. He reformed and joined the police force to wage a relentless fight against crime. How successful he was in this as well as in the game of love is admirably depicted in William S. Hart's latest photoplay, "The Cradle of Courage" which is showing at Keeney's tonight and Friday. "Snoopy" the famous monkey in an "Overall Hero" is also featured.

"Go and Get It" a sensational newspaper story which contains more thrills than a dozen serials is the attraction at the Opera House tonight and Friday.

Viola Dana in "Blackmail" is showing at the Auditorium tonight. It is a thrilling romance of silk stockings crookdom and of a girl who decided to play it straight. Eddie Polo in "The King of the Circus" is also featured tonight. Tomorrow Mildred Harris Chaplin in "The Inferior Sex."

Lena Daley and her "Kandy Kids" will be the offering at the Opera House Saturday matinee and night. The new show which is a musical burlesque is said to have more than its share of catchy, enchanting melodies, beautiful settings, gorgeous costumes and an excellent company of singers and dancers.

C. E. PLAN FOR MASS MEETING

State Field Secretary Carlton M. Sherwood, and C. C. Hamilton of Boston The Speakers At Union Rally in Ponckhockie Church Monday Evening.

A Christian Endeavor mass meeting will be held in the Ponckhockie Congregational Church on Abruzzo street Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock under the auspices of the Kingston Local Union of Christian Endeavor, and every one interested in C. E. work is urged to be present that evening.

Carlton M. Sherwood, state field secretary of New York, and C. C. Hamilton of Boston, field representative of the Christian Endeavor World, will be present and deliver brief addresses. Secretary Sherwood is well known to Kingston audiences, and brings a message worth hearing. Mr. Hamilton is a well known speaker, and the fact that both are on the same program assures a large audience.

The meeting Monday is open to the general public, and it is expected that quite a number of people from the societies located near Kingston will be present as much interest is being taken in the plans to promote Christian Endeavor work in Ulster county. It is also expected that every C. E. society in Kingston will be largely represented Monday.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Janice

Kachoo!

The day was cold and dreary,
In garb too thin she dressed.
Our hearts are sad and weary
Since our darling is at rest.

The following notice was sent up to the Elgin, Chautauque county, Journal, for publication after some towns hunters had been trying their luck in the country nearby. The editor couldn't edit the item without spoiling the meter, so let it go as it fell, to-wit:

NOTICE—Transgressors will be persecuted to the full extent of 2 mongrel dogs, which never was over sochile to strangers and I dubble barl shotgun which ain't loaded with wafu pillars dam if I ain't gittin tired of this hell raising on my farm.

Right in the Cold Weather, Too.
(Wenatchee World, Wash.)
Heavy undressed Kid—Lost Saturday at or near court house.

Well! Well!
There was an old fellow named Plunk.
Who sang while a banjo he'd plunk.
He thought he was good.
But we've understood
That his music was awfully punk.

It doesn't do a bit of good to name a boy William. His mother is going to call him Willie and his father is going to call him Bill.

We shall always believe that it was more by design than by accident that one New York evening paper put a headline referring to the chicken show over a bunch of photographs of Broadway actresses.

It is a very easy matter to revamp an old saying. For instance: One half of the world can't get enough to eat and the other half is suffering from indigestion.

Another Candidate For the Good Loner's Club

(Ad in Isle of Pines News.)
FOR SALE—A four-passenger car; never went anywhere and got back whole. Good for a deaf and dumb man with plenty of time on his hands and not afraid of work, trouble or expense. Cheap for cash, if taken before the owner gets out of patience and spends more money on it. Address: Frank Mallo, Wireless Station.

Hevy:
She's worried, and she's a night.
The poor girl wear a frown
Her skirt is so blame tight
That she cannot sit down.

Any girl can paint a perfect complexion on her cheeks. But she can't paint a perfect 26 on her torso. What the boy was nature thinking about anyway when she created those shoulder creatures that look like a toothpick?

Probably a skinny girl has as much right to wear a short skirt as a well built girl but it certainly looks like abusing a privilege.

And There—It Ended—Now.
(O'Brien, Kan., Herald.)
Just as the rain began falling the happy couple, led by the minister, embarked into the presence of the assembled guests, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Parson, the minister, and as the pastor pronounced the beautiful and impressive ceremony that united their two lives in the hallowed sacred and sacred union of human kind, and offered an appropriate prayer to abundantly furnish their union in the beautiful flower of life.

MISSIONER TO PREACH PASSION

Three Hours Service At Holy Cross Mission To Church Good Friday Evening.

The Holy Week mission which has been in process at Holy Cross since Palm Sunday has been well attended. The informal service, the hearty singing of stirring, familiar hymns, the deep religious truths expounded in sermon and instruction by the gifted pastor, and the stately and beautiful service of the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament have combined to make a fitting preparation during the solemn week for Good Friday and Easter. There has been spiritual meat enough for all in Father Tedemann's services. No cleverly concocted sermon has been provided for the diversity of spiritual needs of the congregation. Father Tedemann's clear understanding of the often forgotten nature of theology, his humaneness, his apt illustrations from familiar life, and frequent quick flashes of wit impress those who hear that there is mighty little in the average church that theology is a dry subject and that the church is a place of interest and the great run of humanity of today. The mission service will be held at 8 o'clock on Good Friday evening at the Holy Cross mission.

The Three Hours Agony of Jesus will be preached by Father Tedemann on Good Friday, from noon until three o'clock. This Good Friday devotion which is so very modern, originated in South America hardly more than a hundred years ago, and observed by English speaking peoples for less than sixty-five years. The service is a death-bed watch, pure and simple. It consists essentially of a series of meditations, interspersed with prayers and hymns, bearing in its way, upon some one of the seven wonderful sayings which were uttered by Jesus Christ during the agony of his crucifixion. People will be free to enter and leave the service at Holy Cross between the meditations, giving at each time as business and home duties will permit.

FRANKLIN LODGE 50 YEARS OLD

Franklin Lodge, No. 37, Knights of Pythias, will celebrate its fifty-first anniversary on Monday night next. An interesting program has been arranged, consisting of an illustrated lecture, speaking, vocal and instrumental music and other features. After the program refreshments will be served and a social time had. The lodge is now having one of the most successful periods of its long career. It is considered one of the banner Pythian lodges of the state. About one thousand Kingston men have passed the portals of its castle hall in travelling the path of knighthood. The lodge has never confined its interests and charity to its own membership, but it has always been ready and willing during its long existence to extend its help to anyone or any matter worthy and deserving. The order is growing faster than ever in its history, the increase in membership last year being greater than the preceding twelve years, and it now has about one million members. It is not only disseminating Pythianism but is teaching and preaching Americanism throughout the entire country. It has a higher objective than the mere ambition to enroll members. Under the leadership of Grand Chancellor Canfield it has adopted higher motives based upon a plan of communion and unity to interest the members to a greater extent and establish the order more firmly in the fabric of human welfare. The order is giving heed to questions which do not involve politics or creed that have to do with community, state and national welfare. The order is identifying itself more closely with the great affairs of life, fraternal, socially and morally, so that in every endeavor and relation the influence of the order for good shall not be confined merely among the membership but shall broaden to the wider field of larger service. Franklin Lodge has always excelled in its fraternal and social functions, and an entertaining and pleasurable time is assured for those who attend. The meeting is open to all members of the order and the Pythian Sisters and the members of their families and their friends. A complete program will be published later.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XIV.—VERMONT

THE derivation of the name Vermont comes from the French "vert" or green mountains, and it was likewise the French who were probably the first white men to see those lofty landmarks which so appropriately give this state its name. This was in July, 1609, when Champlain made his memorable voyage up the lake now called after him. The first permanent settlement was made in 1724 at Brattleboro, where the Massachusetts colony established a fort as a buffer against invasion from the north. The territory used was part of what was known as the "Equivalent Lands," which were sold at public auction in Hartford for about a farthing an acre, the proceeds being donated to Yale college. Shortly after this, settlers pushed eastward from New York across Lake Champlain and westward from New Hampshire. This led to disputes between these two colonies as to their boundaries. Under the leadership of Ethan Allen New York's claims were resisted by a local military force, which proudly called themselves "the Green Mountain Boys." It was these same men who played such a brilliant part during the Revolution. In 1777 a formal Constitution for the state was adopted and Vermonters are proud of the fact that theirs was the first of the states to prohibit slavery by constitutional provision. For a number of years Vermont remained as a separate republic, but in 1791 it was admitted to the Union as the first addition to the original thirteen states. In size Vermont has 9,584 square miles, and its congressional delegation numbers four. It thus casts four votes for the president. (By McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

NEW HURLEY.

New Hurley, March 24.—Mrs. Charles Marx spent a few days last week in New York. The proceeds of the missionary dinner held at the home of Mrs. Van Kleeck last week amounted to about $25. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schenck and son were in Poughkeepsie on Sunday. Special music will be rendered by the choir on Easter Sunday morning and in the evening a song service will be held in the church consisting of solo, duet, and quartet and the pastor will give an address. The Warblers, which was reported in New Paltz, spent the last Friday evening in session at the New Hurley Circle, was a financial success, having received for their part of the proceeds $65. Through the kindness of Wilbur J. Van Wyk the performers were conveyed to New Paltz in his truck. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hamper, who are spending the winter in New Paltz, were kindly invited the young people to take supper at their home, and the invitation was accepted and all did justice to the beautiful supper which had been provided for them. Mrs. William Birdall of Newburgh, N. Y., was in this place on Sunday.

SCHOOL BOARD RECEIVES REPORTS

A meeting of the board of education was held Wednesday evening at the rooms of the board in the high school, all members except Trustee Atkins being present. The report of Superintendent Michael on past time school was received by the board as was the report of the advisory board. On March 18 the members of the advisory board held a meeting and made certain recommendations to the board for the year beginning August 1, 1921, and ending July 31, 1922. These recommendations were embodied in their report to the board.

The March payroll amounting to $17,046.35 was audited and ordered paid. Bills amounting to $31,599.45, which includes interest on school bonds were ordered paid.

A report was received from the supplies committee called attention of the board to the fact that the school year was drawing to a close and asking that the committee be given authority to ask for bids for school supplies for the next school year. The board granted permission to solicit bids for school supplies and also fuel and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

The visiting committee, composed of Trustees Kearney, Crane and Van Wageningen reported that during the month they had visited five of the schools and found things running smoothly. Their visits had also been in the nature of an inspection of the school buildings and property to ascertain the amount of repairs which would be required during the summer season. Considerable painting will be required in various schools. The committee was continued for another month in order that it might visit the remainder of the schools and complete this work.

A communication was received from the Federation of Women's Clubs of the city accepting the terms of the board for use of the high school auditorium for the Kennedy entertainment on April 12.

The board then adjourned.

The local council of St. A. N. A. had a red letter night on Saturday evening, March 19. It being the occasion of a visit from State Council Secretary Faye of Brooklyn, and Brother Van Wageningen of the same place. Approximately 400 members were present. There were many songs and about fifteen members of the local council, Brother Faye and Brother Van Wageningen, both gave very interesting addresses, and were enthusiastically received by the audience. At the close of the service, a social hour was held, and from the home, a party of about 200, a banquet was served. A social hour was held by all, and many will look to the future with all those who attended, and are sure that the night will be remembered as one of our most successful ones.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, March 24.—A continuation of profit-taking following the rapid upturn in yesterday's trading resulted in declines of from fractions to two points at the opening of the stock market today. Chandler Motors, after rising to 8 1/2, fell to 8 1/4. United States Rubber dropped 1 point to 73 1/2. Steel Common sold off 1/2 to 81. Crucible rose 1/4 to 89 1/2 but quickly lost this upturn. Sears Roebuck was under pressure, falling 2 points to 69 1/2. Mexican Petroleum, after selling up 1 to 149 1/2, lost a point. Pacific Oil fell one point from the high to 34 1/2. The rails also showed fractional declines, Northern Pacific dropping 1/4 to 78.

The morning was one of irregular trading, with the majority of issues under pressure. Some substantial rallies occurred after the initial decline but these were soon followed by more declines. Steel Common, after selling down to 81 1/2, rallied to 82 1/2 and then broke again to 82. Studebaker was traded in heavily, falling to 76 1/2 and then rallying to 77 1/2. Sears Roebuck was in supply and dropped to a new low of 67 1/2. The market became more irregular this afternoon when some stocks which were under bear pressure and sold down to new low prices for the day while others moved up on good buying. Houston Oil jumped 2 points to 75 1/2, while Mexican Petroleum fell 2 1/2 to 147. Sears Roebuck was in better demand, advancing 1/2 to 70 1/2. Steel common held around 82 1/2.

The market closed strong today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

EXPECTS INCOME TAX RUSH HERE

J. Deputy Hasbrouck, district director of the Kingston district of the New York state income tax bureau, returned from Albany Wednesday where he attended a conference of officials at which arrangements were completed for handling the rush of taxpayers filing 1920 returns by April 15.

Mr. Hasbrouck says that the surprisingly large number of new taxpayers who have already filed returns indicates that the total number of returns in the Kingston district may be larger than a year ago. He has arranged for extra help to take care of the rush and plans for the convenience of the public in paying the income tax will be announced later.

Mr. Hasbrouck says that there seems to be some doubt among persons paying a tax for the first time as to where returns should be filed. He calls attention to the fact that the Kingston district is made up of the counties of Ulster, Greene and Orange, and new taxpayers living in these counties should communicate with him for blanks and when same are filled out to mail them to the Kingston office. Persons who filed returns last year should enclose their blanks in the self-addressed envelope sent them a few weeks ago.

Chickadee vs. Pine Hill.

Now that the close of the basketball season is rapidly approaching, the spacious court at the Shandegon Hall, Alhambra, is being selected by most of the nearby teams as a neutral court on which to decide their unfinished series. With this end in view the Chickadee and Pine Hill teams will clash there next Saturday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock. These teams have participated in several close games this season and their many followers are anxiously looking forward to the outcome of Saturday's contest as it will tend to prove the matter of supremacy for this season. A neutral referee in the person of Mark Cassidy, well known in New England college and professional basketball circles, has been engaged for the remaining games at Shandegon Hall. Mr. Cassidy is conceded to be one of the best referees in Ulster county. Immediately after the game there will be dancing. Music by Nead's orchestra.

When'll Give A Gown?

The ten little girls of the Junior Sunshine Society who are spending much of their spare time in helping a needy mother who has three children—the oldest but three years old—find that they could be much more helpful out of school hours by taking one of either of the three babies out of doors if only they had a gown. So they have asked The Freeman to make an appeal for a good gown that is still in good condition, hoping to have the same to use during the vacation week. Anyone having such an article to contribute is asked to communicate with Mrs. Henry R. Smith, 22 Lafayette avenue, telephone 744-W.
